

Lake Arrowhead, CA—Church of the Woods is hosting free Vacation Bible School this week from 5 p.m. until 8:15 p.m., nightly, through July 9, 2010 in Lake Arrowhead, California.

The program is packed with fun, food, music, Bible dramas and games designed to educate and entertain local elementary school-aged children. Volunteers have transformed the church building from a traditional sanctuary into Saddle Ridge Ranch, resembling a scene right out of a Wild West movie.

Attendance is averaging 150 kids per night, who are wrangled by 130 volunteers. In addition to enjoying dinner and dessert, the children make crafts at the Cowboy Station, line dance, learn memory verses, sing, and hear Bible stories. Tonight's events include pony and horse rides.

Church of the Woods is a non-denominational evangelical
